Inform * Educate * Inspire

Sapphire Jungle

When you are more prepared in life, the opportunities just seem to keep coming. AMPing things UP™ gives you the insight to:

- See the power in what you currently have
- Feel the strength at your weakest moment in career or personal life
- Empower yourself to obtain what you now are lacking
- Get informed to make cogent decisions or to contribute positively to your environment
- Revel in your riches whether your net worth is $1 or $1 million as you give back to society at any point in your personal life or business
- Empowering employees and business owners to progress beyond their wildest dreams and
- Find your gem in the middle of the maze, your Sapphire Jungle™.

AMP things UP™ will always inform, educate or inspire you if not all three. The Sapphire Jungle concept is to demonstrate the importance of balancing law, business and society to the average person.

BIOGRAPHY

Alicia M. Phidd, M.P.S., J.D. became the third chemist and first female chemist in her family. She worked in that industry for a few years, concurrently earned a Masters Degree in Environmental Studies and then attended law school. Upon completing law school in 2 ½ years, she practiced in several areas of law before concentrating on business law and immigration law.

Ms. Phidd started her law practice in Tampa, Florida in 2005 and due to her people person persona in record time became known to many. Ms. Phidd enjoys meeting and helping people and became known in Tampa Bay as the ultimate networker. She took the time to remember what you do and how she could help you. She never fails to introduce parties of the same industry or those that should know each other.

While in her career as an attorney, Ms. Phidd also developed as a professor and has an equally long and impressive career in academia teaching business law, employment law and environmental law. She also taught Sports Law to graduate students at Barry University. She currently teaches at University of Phoenix in Temple Terrace, Florida.

In 2009, Ms. Phidd added an additional job category to her long list and that is radio talk show host. She hosts a weekly show, a legal, political and social conversation on current affairs. The show initially aired on the radio and is currently webcasted.

You can enjoy Ms. Phidd's writing at her blog at www.aliciaphidd.blogspot.com, a poetry book, Lions' Den published in 2007 and she is currently working on her book Sapphire
